Grade – A (Easy)

The Granite Rose Coast is a weekend walk in a beautiful part of the Brittany Coastal Path (which runs from Mont St Michel to Lorient -in total 150 miles! Do not fear we have selected only part of this coastal path. The section we will be walking is in the Perros Guirec area of Brittany. The walking is easy but you still need to be reasonable fit as the path undulates in parts. We will be passing through bustling fishing ports and stone hamlets. You walk past the smoothed pink granite boulders weathered into weird and wonderful shapes that give the Cote du Granit Rose its name.

This is a social weekend and everyone we have taken in the past has said what a great time they've had. On the weekend you combine walking with eating and drinking quality French food and wine. The weekend is completed with a celebratory lunch on the Sunday.

The weekend starts with travel from either Jersey or Guernsey with at least one of the walk organizers acting as escort.

Travelling from Jersey If travelling from the UK we can meet you in St Malo on Friday

On Friday meet at the Elizabeth Terminal at 17.30 to check in ready for the 18.15 departure. Please remember to bring passport and your sponsor money which will be collected when you check in.

Day 1 – Friday

Travel and arrive in St Malo, then transfer by coach to your hotel in Perros Guirec. Our arrival time at the hotel will be approximately 23.00 as it is a late departure. Consequently, we advise you to have a snack before you leave or on the boat.

Day 2 Saturday Perros Guirec

We will have an early breakfast and be ready to leave the hotel by nine and walk out of Perros Guirec. From here, you rejoin the coast via Pont ar Sauz, walking past numerous sandy bays, the many tiny off-shore islands enhancing the views on clear days. We will lunch on the Plage de Trestel and then continue on to Port Blanc. At the end of the day a coach or minibus will pick us up from Port Blanc and take us back to Perros Guirec where we will go the hotel. We will have time to rest and then go to a restaurant for an evening meal and a well earned glass of wine. (20kms 5hrs)

Day 3 -Sunday

We will depart at about 9.00am from the hotel after breakfast. Today's walk is a real highlight, with fine views in good weather to the Sept Îles. Your route follows the Sentier des Douaniers, a magnificent coastal path originally used by anti-smuggling patrols, then leads along paths through a reserve dotted with weirdly shaped rocks, moulded by the wind and waves, to the seaside resort of Trégastel. (10km, 3hrs).

Where we will have lunch at a local restaurant.

We recommend this walking weekend to everyone and, in particular, couples who like walking, good food and glass or two of French wine. Not a bad way to spend a weekend and, of course, with our delightful company.
