Grade – A (Easy)

The River Rance Challenge 2009 is a weekend walk in a beautiful part of the Brittany Coastal Path (which runs from Mont St Michel to Lorient - in total 150 miles! Do not fear we have selected only part of this coastal path. The section we will be walking is from Dinard to Dinan. The walking is easy but you still need to be reasonable fit as the path undulates in parts.

We are based in the famous walled town of St Malo, which is an ideal location for access to first class restaurants and fine shopping. We allow a short time on Sunday for shopping in St Malo when most shops are open.

This is a social weekend and everyone we have taken in the past has said what a great time they've had. On the weekend you combine walking with eating and drinking quality French food and wine. The weekend is completed with a celebratory lunch on the Sunday.

The weekend starts with travel from either Jersey or Guernsey with at least one of the walk organizers acting as escort.

Travelling from Jersey If travelling from the UK we can meet you in St Malo on Friday

On Friday 4th September meet at the Elizabeth Terminal at 18.15 to check in ready for the 19.15 departure. Please remember to bring your sponsor money which will be collected when you check in.

Day 1 – Friday

Travel and arrive in St Malo, then transfer to your hotel. We will be staying at Hotel La Louvre within the old walls or another hotel if we are unable to obtain accommodation at the La Louvre.

Our arrival time at the hotel will be approximately 22.00 as it is a late departure. Consequently, we advise you to have a snack before you leave or on the boat or try to get something late in St Malo which may be difficult although maybe OK in small groups. Apres the meal we will retire to the hotel.

Day 2 Saturday

We will have an early breakfast and be ready to leave the hotel by nine and walk to the vedette (boat) to take us to Dinard. This will be a ten minute boat trip to the seafront quay at Dinard. Here the walk will start at the south end of the seafront at La Plage de L'Ecluse. The route is very flat to begin with and follows around the side of the town, This is a lovely stretch of walking. After about an hour the path breaks up and is a little more undulating. The walk takes us south towards the barrage, we cross it and then follow the river. The track is interesting as it takes you through villages, woods and along the river bank itself.

At the end of the day a coach or minibus will pick us up and take us to Dinan where we will go the hotel Le Challenge for the night. We will have time to rest and then to a restaurant for an evening meal and a well earned glass of wine.

Day 3 - Sunday

We will depart at about 9.00am from the hotel after breakfast and then drive to where we finished yesterday. We will follow the low-lying river valley around this inlet and we will end up in Dinan. This walk will take between 2 to 3 hours. We will have a drink and our celebratory lunch. in Dinan. After lunch we will catch the coach back to St Malo. You will have a short time for shopping in St Malo town. Then meet us to catch your ferry back home.

We recommend this walking weekend to everyone and, in particular, couples who like walking, good food and glass or two of French wine. Not a bad way to spend a weekend and, of course, with our delightful company.
