

Jersey's History Explored

Jersey History Explored 8 days – A week of History

Jersey is an island of great variety and beauty, nestling in the Gulf of St Malo

Come and hear about the island's history. The island is steeped in it. Learn about our French heritage and our transition to becoming a British island. Hear about the German occupation, the ship building and the woollen industry. Learn about the Privateering that took place and how the cod trade with Newfoundland was developed. Hear the legends, folklore and find out more about the island's history.

Paths: Country paths and well maintained cliff paths, occasionally rough with short steep sections
Daily distance approx 10 miles (should be a regular walker)

Start Time: 9.30 hrs approx

Guide: Kevin Daly
